

The War Effort

A comedy in 1940s Home Front Britain. As bombs fall on the Northern town of Sheffield there is a war between the sexes being waged between two couples. Haughty Patricia and clean freak Angela attempt to prove they have what it takes to defend their country, that is until they encounter the big gun. Meanwhile their husbands, the miserable George and space cadet William discover that serving cake can be a deadly business. I enjoyed reading this, a combination of I Love Lucy meets Dads Army with a dash of seaside postcard humour thrown in. The laughs are constant and well thought out. This is timeless stuff, I think you may have hit upon a bright spark.
